

MT. ZION BIBLE STUDY IS GOING LIVE, DON'T MISS ANOTHER WEEK: JOIN US ON WEBEX!

We know that many of our members come to the church throughout the week and serve in multiple capacities to help fulfill God's holy purpose for our lives and the world. Every now and then, we wish that we could participate from home, a coffee shop or around the world. NOW YOU CAN!

WebEx is both video and audio capable. That means, Rev. Paul H. Sadler, Sr. will be able to see and speak with every person online in the Bible Study and so can you! We will be able to share documents, videos, music and more. This is a great way to experience the Word of God each week and learn something new about our purpose, our Christian journey.

Beginning this Wednesday, May 16, 2018, you can participate in Bible study at church, home or on the go through our new WebEx conference room. All you need to do is login and join Rev. Paul for this important and spiritual experience!

The following instructions will prepare each participant in becoming familiar with the WebEx platform online. NOTE: You will not be able to see an active meeting room until Bible Study next Wednesday, May 16, 2018.

HERE IS WHAT YOU CAN DO TODAY TO BE READY:
